

2nd Grade Suggested Summer Reading List

(You are also welcomed to read any books that you find enjoyable and interesting)

Greetings From Somewhere The Mystery of the Mosaic by Harper Paris, illustrated by Marcos Calo

Second in a series, this is a simple story about two kids who accompany their parents to Venice, Italy and get the chance to solve two mysteries.

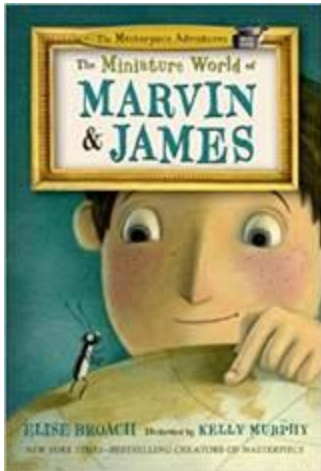

The Magic Tree House by Mary Pope Osborne

A MUST-READ series for all kids! These combine mystery, history, magic, and adventure as siblings Jack and Annie adventure through time.

Like Carrot Juice on a Cupcake by Julie Sternberg, illustrated by Matthew Cordell
I really loved this story told in first person from Eleanor's point of view. It's about the challenges when Eleanor gets jealous of a new girl she thinks her best friend Pearl might like better than her.

The Miniature World of Marvin & James by Elise Broach, illustrated by Kelly Murphy
SUPER EASY! When James leaves for vacation, his pet beetle, Marvin, and his little sister get into some trouble inside the pencil sharpener. Luckily Marvin figures out how to save them both, James returns from vacation, and all is well. Good for very beginning readers transitioning to chapter books.

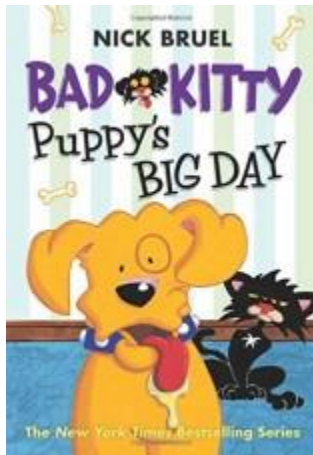

A to Z Mysteries by Rob Roy

This addictive mystery series will keep your kids reading for hours and days and months.

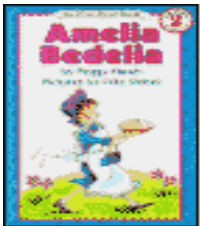

Little Red Quacking Hood by Norah Z. Jones (There are many in the series to pick from) Scaredy Pants W Wolf needs Princess's help. Little Red Quacking Hood keeps stealing his pies! Wold, Princess, and Moldylocks follow Little Red and discover the reason for the pie theft is not at all what they thought! And, there's an easy solution.

Bad Kitty: Puppy's Big Day* by Nick Bruel

It's delightful to read a series where every book is consistently good. Well, in this case, hilariously good. Bad Kitty is raging so Puppy calls for help. Uncle Murry to the rescue. Only Uncle Murry's in for some trouble when he takes Puppy out of the house –without a leash, or a poop bag, or a license! Insert sarcastic messages of cat awesomeness from you-know-who and inventive new canine characters at the pound, and you have the perfect story for beginning readers one could pack in 153 pages.

Amelia Bedelia (I Can Read Book Series)*
by Peggy Parish, Fritz Siebel (illus.)

Meet Amelia Bedelia, the unflappable maid who does everything literally. With her purse on her arm and hat firmly on her head, Amelia Bedelia follows instructions to a T: Change the towels? Nothing a pair of scissors can't do! Dust the furniture? That's when the perfumed dusting powder really comes in handy. Dress the chicken for dinner -- well, do you want a boy chicken or a girl chicken? Amelia Bedelia's well-meaning gaffs cause readers to chuckle but her employer to fume -- it's a good thing she's such a good cook!

Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse*
by Kevin Henkes

Lilly the mouse adores her teacher, Mr. Slinger -- until he takes away the purple plastic purse she was proudly showing off to her class. Lilly is so angry she draws a nasty picture of Mr. Slinger and slips it in his bag. At the end of the day, Lilly gets her purse back and inside is a sympathetic note and a bag of treats. As in all his other books, Henkes shows an incredible sensitivity to children's feelings

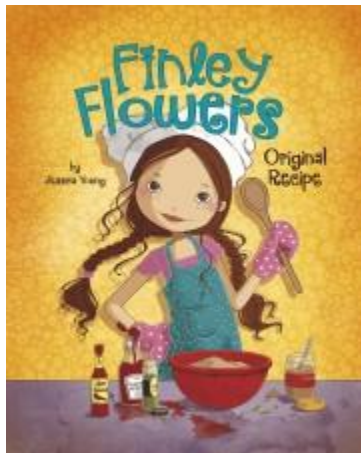

The Case of the Spooky Sleepover, Jigsaw Jones Mystery #4
by James Preller

Ralphie Jordan can't sleep. Something is making spooky noises in his room at night. It's a perfect case for Jigsaw Jones, who pieces together all the ghostly clues

The Adventures of Taxi Dog

by Debra Barracca, Sal Barracca, Mark Buehner (illus.)

Jim, a New York City taxi driver, rescues a stray dog and dubs his new pet Maxi. Maxi accompanies Jim in his taxi and meets all sorts of people. With each new passenger, Maxi makes a new friend -- and even helps Jim get tips! The text is written in a bouncing rhyme, and Buehner's paintings capture Maxi's doggy personality and Jim's geniality. Can you find the cat in every picture?

Finley Flowers Original Recipe by Jessica Young

3rd grade Finley wants to win a cooking contest so she can give the prize (free pizza for a year) to her best friend, Henry, for his birthday. She insists she doesn't need ideas or help which turns out to be a disaster as well as a valuable learning experience. Charming illustrations accompany this sweet story of friendship.

The Ghost Backstage (The Haunted Library) by Dori Hillestad Butler, illustrated by Aurore Damant

Another intriguing adventure of Claire and her ghostly friend, Kaz. . . . Have they found Kaz's mom? What or who is haunting the school theater and causing all the mischief?

Here is a website that you might find handy to access a lot of different books in different genres and reading ability for your child.

*Summer Vacation is almost here! It is a time to REST, RELAX, AND READ, but above all ENJOY!!

Reading, like a sport, involves practice and skill. Real skill building occurs when children read for pleasure, when children read "just right" books (books that are not too hard or too easy), and when children can explore all topics and books that interest them.

Below are a few tips to encourage reading during the summer:

- Choose "just right" books of any genre (fiction, nonfiction, comic books, magazines, picture books).
- Set aside a regular family reading time each day.
- Read to your child each day.
- Recognize your child's interests.
- Let your child read see you each day reading.
- Don't forget to pack a book when you go on vacation.

During the first week of school in the fall, your child will be asked to recall their favorite book they read during the summer. They will illustrate their favorite part of the book and write a few sentences about the book.
